

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr. Julia Braun, nee Grübel

PERSONAL DATA:

Born: February 12, 1982, in Munich, Germany

Nationality: German

Married, two children

EDUCATION:

1988 - 1992 Primary school in Munich

1992 - 2001 Gisela-Gymnasium in Munich

2001 - 2006 Studies in Statistics at Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität,
Munich

2007 - 2013 Doctorate in Biostatistics at University of Zurich

DISSERTATION:

Predictive Crossvalidation and Baseline Correction in Mixed Models for Longitudinal Data

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

October 1, 2006 - December 31, 2006:

Research associate: Department of Statistics, LMU Munich

March 15, 2007 - July 31, 2009:

Research associate: Division of Biostatistics, Institute of Social and Preventive Medicine,
University of Zurich

Since August 1, 2009:

Assistant lecturer: Division of Biostatistics, Institute of Social and Preventive Medicine,
University of Zurich

August 1, 2009 - July 31, 2013:

Research associate: Swiss National Cohort, Unit of Demography and Health Statistics,
Institute of Social and Preventive Medicine, University of Zurich

July 1, 2013 - December 31, 2014:

Postdoctoral researcher: Applied Statistics Group, Institute of Mathematics, University of Zurich

August 1, 2013 - August 31, 2014:

Postdoctoral researcher: Swiss National Cohort, Unit of Demography and Health Statistics, Institute of Social and Preventive Medicine, University of Zurich

Since September 1, 2014:

Scientist: Department of Epidemiology, Division of Chronic Disease Epidemiology, Epidemiology, Biostatistics and Prevention Institute, University of Zurich

SCHOLARSHIPS:

2001 - 2006 Scholarship of the State of Bavaria for especially talented high school graduates

2001-2012 e-fellows.net online scholarship

January 2010 Oberwolfach Leibniz Graduate Students travel grant for the Oberwolfach workshop "Statistical Issues in Prediction: What can be Learned for Individualized Predictive Medicine?"